Hi! Autumn here. The last name is pronounced Sea-High.

I'm a senior at the University of Arkansas majoring in a combined degree of English and journalism and minoring in anthropology. My graduation is this May.

On this site you'll find my favorite writing samples, website work and a bit more information about my skills and hobbies. Feel free to contact me via the contact page if you want to see more of my work.

Some things about me that you won't find on the site: I love cats, am a macaroni and cheese aficionado and spent the summer of 2016 hanging out at the Cannes Film Festival.
